Entered according to act of Congress A.D. 1861 by Balmer & Weber in the Clerk's Office of the U.S. Court for the Eastern District of Mo.

Dwelt mer - ry Ma - bel Boone Wild, fear - less, fair and gay Her Fly from thy for - est home My cas - tle o'er the sea, Sits glad - some voice sing - ing, Sweet car - ols night and day.
lone - - ly in splen - dor With o - pen door for thee.
All lone the cab - in stood, A hunt - er's daughter she, Was Robb'd of these mountains wild, And all their joy - ous scenes I'd queen of the wild wood, And all the world to me.
scorn wealth by mill - - ions Though crown'd the queen of queens.

Her life was morning tide, While mine was near its noon, ---------- I Torn from its par-ent stem The rose would with-er soon ---------- Let 3.

Mabel!-bright forest flower,—
My castle o'er the sea,
No gem holds so brilliant —
As my fond love for thee.
Here 'round our cabin fire,
Beneath thy loving smile,
When dark storms are howling
'Tis spring-time all the while,
Give me the Mountain Pass
With Mabel by my side,
In robes of Otter velvet
A hunter's darling bride!
Love's vows were plighted there
Beneath the summer moon;
I won her — and wed her —
The merry Mabel Boone.
